

Dear Parents,

On Wednesday 4th March Matt Buckingham children's author will be visiting the school to work with the children, sharing his stories, his job and his creative ideas. It will be a wonderful day where the children here stories shared and read by the author himself.

We are emailing to you a book-order form ahead of the visit. Should you wish to pre-order any of his books which can be signed and doodled into by the author please complete the attached form and return to school, payment will then become available via arbour. For every book purchased, the school receives £1.

There is no expectation or need for you to order a book as all children will enjoy the day but should you wish to purchase copies for your home the option is available to you.

We are looking forward to an amazing day.

With thanks,
Mrs Clowes
