

OLSB Look for a Book hopes to share books encouraging nurture and talk time and encourage less 'screen time' Spending just 10 minutes a day sharing a book or reading can really help develop, speech, language and essential skills for learning and life.

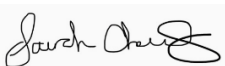

Please feel free to share this book and take it home to enjoy.
When you have shared it please re-hide for another person to find and enjoy.

Please post photos on 'OLSB LOOK FOR A BOOK' Facebook page.

Please re-use this bag for as long as possible. Should you require another please contact the school.

Everyone is welcome to join in. Please do look after the books. If you wish to hide your own book please ensure it is appropriate for young children.

With thanks,

Mrs Sarah Clowes (Principal)
